

HDTV receivers for home use should NOT be forced to include copy protection. According to the Fair Use Act, we should be able to make copies of tv shows for our own use (watching later, etc). If HDTV turns out to be restricted in this fashion you can bet I will voice my opinion with my pocketbook!!!